St. Cloud Hotel.

THIS new and commodious house, located corner of Broadway and 42d Street, possesses advantages over all other houses for the accommodation of its guests. It was built expressly for a first class Family Boarding House—the rooms being large and en suit, heated by steam—with hot and cold water, and furnished second to none; while the culinary department is in the most experienced hands, affording guests an unequaled table.

One of Atwood's Patent Elevators is also among the 'modern improvements" and at the service of guests at all hours.

The Broadway and University Place Cars pass the door every four minutes, running from the City Hall to Central Park, while the Sixth and Seventh Avenue Lines are but a short block on either side, affording ample facilities for communicating with all the Depots, Steamboat Landings, places of Amusement and Business of the great metropolis.

DOTY'S WASHING MACHINE,

LATELY MUCH IMPROVED—AND THE NEW

Universal Clothes Wringer

Improved with ROWELL'S PATENT DOUBLE COG WHEELS, and the PATENT STOP, are now unquestionably far superior to any apparatus for washing clothes ever invented, and will save their cost twice a year, by saving labor and clothes.

Those who have used them give testimony as follows:

"We like our machine much; could not be persuaded to do without it, and with the aid of Doty, we feel that we are masters of the position."—Rev. L. Scott Bishop M E. Church.

"It is worth one dollar a week in any family."—N. Y. Tribune

"In the laundry of my house there is a perpetual thanksgiving on Mondays for the invention." —Rev. Theodore L Cuyler.

"Every week has given it a stronger hold upon the affections of the inmates of the laundry."—N. Y. Observer.

"I heartily commend it to economists of time, money, and contentment,"—Rev. Dr. Bellows.

"Friend Doty—Your last improvement of your Washing Machine is a complete success. I assure you 'our Machine,' after a year's use, is thought more of to day than ever, and would not be parted with under any circumstances."—Solon Robinson.

"Your Washing Machine has been in daily use in our laundry, and the housekeeper expresses herself as highly pleased with it. It certainly accomplishes a greater amount of work with less labor, and does not wear the clothes near so much as the old fashioned wash-board. By using it, one hundredth is dispensed with"—Wm. M F. Round, Superintendent of Infant Department of St. Catharine's Nursery, N. Y City.

PRICES.—A Fair Offer.

Send the retail price, Washer $14, Extra Wringer $9, and we will forward either or both machines, free of freight, to places where no one is selling; and so sure are we they will be liked, that we agree to refund the money if any one wishes to return the machines free of freight, after a month's trial, according to directions.

No husband, father or brother should permit the druggery of washing with the hands, fifty-two days in the year, when it can be done better, more expeditiously, with less labor, and no injury to the garments, by a Doty Clothes Washer, and a Universal Wringer.

Canvassers with exclusive right of sale make money fast selling them.

Sold by dealers generally, to whom liberal discounts are made.

NOT SO BAD.—A Michigan sheriff had the misfortune to lose a prisoner, who escaped with nothing but his shirt. The same night, the wife of a neighbor presented him with a promising baby. He on hearing the officer's inquiries, thought to help him in securing his prisoner. He therefore informed the sheriff that a fellow had suddenly appeared at his house in the night, perfectly naked, acting quite strangely, and refusing to tell anything about himself, and that he had shut him up there till he could find out more about him. The officer's eyes stuck out like a steer's in the corn. That stranger was his huckleberry, and he posted for his friend's residence with a pair of handcuffs to make sure of him. Arrived there, he demanded to see the nocturnal visitor, when the nurse astonished his vision with the sight of a respectably got-up baby. The constable fell back in good order, and has been out of town since on business."

A bachelor of ours passing up the streets a few days ago, picked up a thimble. He stood for a moment meditating on the probable owner when pressing it to his lips, he said—

"Oh, that this were the fair lips of the wearer."

Just as he had finished, a big, fat, ugly colored woman looked out an upper window, and said—

"Boss, jis please frow dat fimble in de entry, I jis drap it."

AN Irishmam observing a dandy taking his usual strut in Broadway, stepped up to him and inquired, "How much rent do you ask for those houses?" "What you ask me that for?" 'Faith, and I thought the whole street belonged to ye."

Well den you go on till you meet a big barn, shingled mit straw; den you durn de road around de field and go on till you cum to a pig red house all peckled o'er mit vite, and de garret up stairs. Well, dat is my broder Han's house. Den you durn dat house arount te barn, and you see a road dat goes up in de woods. Den you don't dake dat road, too. Den you go right straight on, ant de first you meet is a hay stack, and de next is bar-barrack. Well, he don't lif here. Den you will get furter, and you see a house on top de hill, about a mile, and go in dere and ax de old voman and she will tell you bedder as I can.

THE LAST MINCE-PIE.

A Western Romance.

Chapter I.—She threw herself upon his breast and wept.

Chapter II.—As she ceased weeping, he groaned audibly. Then they sat entwined in each other's arms for about two hours, and nary one of 'em spoke.

Chapter III.—A voice fractured the solemn stillness of the air. 'Twas Eugene's. "How sweet, my own love Harriet, if I but had a mince-pie to eat." Then she lifted her tear dimmed eyes to the starry heavens, clasped her hands wildly and exclaimed: "Come with me to the kitchen, love, and thou shalt eat thy fill, for there were three of 'em left at dinner." They clasped each other by the hand and rushed to the pantry.

Chapter IV.—Two mince pies had disappeared and the third was about to share the same fate, when a stealthy step was heard. "Fly, my angel—my beau! 'Tis the old woman I know." And she fell fainting at his feet.

Chapter V.—The old woman stood face to face with Eugene. And she asked him what he had been doin' with the gal, and he said he hadn't dun nothin'. She seized upon the remaining pie, and, with the ferocity of a tigress, she chucked it at him.

Chapter VI.—Her aim had been too true. She hit him in the pit of the stomach and he fell at her feet a corpse. They buried them both in one grave; and every spring the village maidens plant roses over the place where lie the lovers at last united.

REGISTERING DEEDS.

A report having gained currency that deeds must be registered by the first of October to render them valid, we copy below, for the information of our readers, the act enacted at the last session of the Legislature relating to the extension of time for registering certain deeds, which clearly and conclusively proves the impression to be an erroneous one. Persons holding deeds are not compelled to register them by the 1st of October, but are allowed two years from the date of the ratification of the act—April 12th, 1869—in which to fulfill this requirement of the law:

AN ACT to extend the time for registering certain Deeds.—SECTION 1. The General Assembly of North Carolina do enact, That all grants of land in this State, all deeds of mesne conveyances, deeds of roll, deeds of gifts, powers of attorney, and other conveyance, which are allowed, or required by law to be proved and registered shall, within two years after the passage of this act, be admitted to proof and registration under the same rules, regulations and restrictions as heretofore or hereafter may be provided by law; and when so proved and registered shall be as good and valid as if they had been proved and registered within the time heretofore allowed; Provided, That nothing herein contained shall be construed to extend to mortgages and conveyances in trust or to marriage settlements.

Ratified the 12th of April, A. D., 1869.

THE MASSACHUSETTS Republican Convention at Worcester, Wednesday, was addressed by Mr. Sumner, first, in criticism and denunciation of the Democratic party; second, in allusion to Spain and Cuba, and in favor of strict nonintervention on the part of the United States, but advising Spain not only to give up Cuba, but the idea of having a King; third, as to our relations with England, he would make no demand for money or apology, but leave it to her first to offer reparation, upon which our country would decide. The convention re-nominated the present State ticket.

WALL STREET, says the New York Tribune, was frantic on Wednesday. The gamblers of the Stock Exchange held such high carnival as has rarely been known before in the memory of the oldest member of the Board. The immediate cause was a report that Mr. Fisk had obtained an injunction from an accommodating Judge restraining the Directors from making the long contemplated consolidation of the Central and Hudson River Railroad Companies. Central opened at 198½, declined to 175½, and recovered 15 per cent., all within about fifteen minutes. Gold advanced to 141½. This was aided by a report that minister Sickles had demanded his passports, and that war with Spain was imminent.

But it seems the excitement did not end with Wednesday. The telegrams this morning quote stocks as "very unsettled"—and Gold at twelve o'clock yesterday at 162, and fifteen minutes later at 136½—then at 135.

IMPORTANT TO HEIRS, EXECUTORS, &c.—The Petersburg Index has the following piece of valuable information:

"Under the Internal Revenue law, property passing by will or by the intestate laws of any State, to heirs of deceased persons, and all real estate passing by gift, or in any manner whatever, without adequate consideration, from one person or corporation to another, is subject to a tax at a rate ranging from one to six per cent. and the law makes it the duty of the executor or administrator to make out, and render to the assistant assessor, having supervision of such business, a complete list of all legacies or distributive shares held by him, before the same shall be delivered or paid to the heirs; and of any person succeeding to real estate in any manner, as above stated, to make return thereof to the assistant assessor in the manner prescribed by law. Any neglect on the part of a successor, to make the proper return, will subject the property to an increased assessment, and himself to a fine. It is also important to parties purchasing property belonging to the estate of a deceased person to see that the heirs or persons of whom the purchase is made, have the collector's receipt for government tax, as the government has a lien upon such property for all taxes due."

FORTY-EIGHT iron-clads are now in a sea-going condition, and ready for immediate use, and by the 15th of December next from fifteen to twenty sloops and frigates will be ready for service.

Injunctions have become such an important and formidable feature of the legal machinery of our day that we are happy to stumble upon anything calculated to enlighten the average mind as to their nature and effect. A railroad in Georgia having undertaken to stop the construction of a rival road by injunction, the Brunswick Appeal thus irradiates the matter:

A DARKEY'S IDEA OF INJUNCTION.

Bob: What do dey mean by juncshun, I hear de white folks tork about?

Cuffy: Well, I splain it to you.—'Spose, now, you and me bof get liscens to dray; I don't want you to dray, cause you might get some my customers; so I smash your dray till dere ain't nothin' left. After a while you get nodder dray, so I gets a juncshun to keep you from drayin', cause you ain't got de same dray you had afore.

Bob: But dat ain't rite.

Cuffy: I ain't goin' to arger that pint. You must ask some dem big lawyers how dat is.

A Great Relief.

Since the papers have so widely circulated the story that the tomato worm is fatally poisonous great anxiety has been felt by old maids and nervous housewives lest a terrible calamity befall them, and they have not only carefully avoided tomato patches, but have cautioned the gardener, the kitchen girl, and all the children to keep at a safe distance from these ugly green worms with poisonous stings. But here comes comfort from a man of science.

Mr. Walsh, a practical entomologist, who has studied worms most thoroughly, says: "I scarcely supposed that anybody would for a moment believe such silly nonsense; but as I find that a great many do actually believe it, I take this opportunity to state that the whole story is fabricated out of the whole cloth. The horn in the tomato worm's tail is not a sting, neither can it penetrate the human flesh, and even if it did there is no poison bag attached to it, so that the result would be no more serious than a wound from a needle."

The Memphis Avalanche, ranking among the foremost Democratic journals of Tennessee, is evidently beginning to comprehend the spirit of the age. It says:

"Recognize the negro's right to vote; cease to abuse and sneer at him; treat him as a human being, with a soul in his body, and as susceptible of the sensibilities, the resentments and frailties of humanity, and he will at once emulate the magnanimity of the whites, endeavor to rival them in industry, enterprise and thrift, cultivate amity, educate his children, acquire homesteads for his family, strive to deserve the confidence of his fellowmen, and above all, he will never cast his vote to the injury of the white man, who he has learned, by kindness, is his on' friend."

[redacted]

"WHEN men break their hearts," remarks a cynical female writer, "it is the same as when a lobster breaks one of his claws—another sprouting out immediately and growing in its place."

THE ŒCUMENICAL COUNCIL.—According to a letter from Rome, published in Kreuz Zeitung, of Berlin, the prelates engaged in preparing the subjects to be discussed at the approaching Church Council, have agreed upon the following plan, which is to be proposed for adoption: All the articles of the Syllabus are to be transformed into canons; the religious Orders are to be abolished, excepting five—the Jesuits, Dominicans or preaching monks, Franciscans, Benedictines and Lazarists, or missionaries. The regular clergy are to be diminished in number, and the power of the bishops is to be increased.

PRICES OF WHEAT FROM 1825 to AUGUST, 1869.—In 1825 the highest price paid for North river wheat was in May $1 06 per bushel. In December, 1827, it reached $1 25 per bushel. In December, 1831, it sold for $2 00, and in January for $2 10. It did not reach this price again until 1855, when it sold in January for $2 60; in May for $2 80. In 1857, the year of the financial crash, it sold for $1 65 in July. In April, 1864, it sold for $2 00; in July for $2 75. In December for $3 30; in May, 1867, for $3 50, and in August, 1869, wheat sells in Chicago from $1 42 for No. 1 spring, to No. 2 white winter at $1 37. These prices show the fact, gratifying to all, that we are getting back to the prices for flour which prevailed before the rebellion.

INTERDICTED.—The use of kerosene oil has been interdicted by the War Department at the military posts.

A REMARKABLE sermon was preached in St. Alban's (Episcopal) church, New York, by the rector of that parish, on Sunday last, wherein the reverend gentleman affirmed that the Episcopalian and Catholic belief is positively alike, although the members do not commune together, owing to intrigues at the Court of Rome at the time of the Reformation. The preacher boldly asserted that the churches referred to are actually but one, and that the members are all Roman Catholics; and he hoped to see the day when both should be united under the latter name, and unite in communion. The sermon created much sensation among his hearers, many of whom were Protestants from other denominations, whose belief he attacked, utterly denying their faith as a religion based on Christ.

Horrible Accident at Niagra Falls.

NIAGRA FALLS, September 25.—The horses attached to a carriage containing a gentlemen and four ladies became unmanageable The gentleman jumped off, and escaped. The carriage and horses went over a bank 150 feet high, killing one lady, fatally injuring another, and terribly bruising the others. The party were from Providence, R. I.

State University

We are pleased to learn that this Institution of learning, once the pride of the State, is again increasing in public favor and receiving a fair complement of the young men of the country to be educated. That is right.—Let the present faculty have a fair trial, and be judged only by their merits, and to that end let prejudice be laid aside. We have no doubt that all the Professors in the institution are well qualified for their positions, and that each will do his utmost to discharge faithfully his peculiar duty. But it is alleged that all the Professors belong to the Republican party. So are nearly all the Railroads in the State managed by men claiming to belong to that party, but do Conservatives and Democrats refuse to travel over these roads for all that? The State Government is in the hands of the Radicals, but do the people conclude to remove away for that reason. We do not believe that our sons would be made Radicals by attending school at Chapel Hill.—Statesville American.

HELMBOLD'S BUCHU.—In days past, among the unenlightened, and up to the present time, in our day and generation, no one article of drug has been in as frequent use, or considered more reliable, than Buchu. Scarcely a druggist among us but manufactures and has on sale a fluid extract of Buchu. None of these, however, have attained the rare celebrity as that of which H. T. Helmbold, of 594 Broadway, New York, is manufacturer and proprietor. His contains other ingredients, all of which are freely mentioned in his advertisement, and are named in the dispensatory in use by all colleges of pharmacy and by regular physicians. Add to this the fact that these same regular physicians are recommending it in all cases of diseases of the kidneys and their connecting organs, is certainly an evidence that this medicine possesses virtues seldom accorded to advertised remedies.

There are counterfeits of this, the genuine, in existence; so those buying should see they get none other than that of Helmbold's. His may be readily known, as each bottle has his name blown upon the bottle.

DEATH FROM A SINGULAR CAUSE.—A Mr. Tyner, residing in Johnston County, died last Friday, from a very singular cause. He was engaged in stacking some fodder, when he was bitten on the face, near the corner of the right eye, by some reptile or insect. Great pain immediately ensued, and a physician was sent for; but before he arrived the sufferer was insensible, and despite every remedy employed, he died within nine hours after he was bitten.

Our informant states that Mr. Tyner was of opinion that the bite was from a striped lizzard; but the physician thought it was inflicted by a spider. —Raleigh Sentinel.

CHOLERA.

A Cure for this Disease may be found in the use of

PERRY DAVIS' PAIN KILLER.

I have used the medicine known as PERRY DAVIS' VEGETABLE PAIN KILLER in my family for the last twelve months, and have great pleasure in testifying to its very valuable properties. I would not on any account be without it During the existence of the Cholera last year I used no medicine of any sort but the Pain Killer, although myself and several members of my family were attacked by it severely, and I am happy to say that the Pain Killer was equal to every emergency; it was both a preventive and a certain cure. I consider I should not be doing my duty to the community did I not say this much. If I were attacked by the Cholera to day, the Pain Killer would be the only remedy I should use. I have thoroughly tested it, and know it can be relied on. F. E. BERGINSEND,

SPECIAL NOTICE.

SCIENCE ADVANCES.

As soon as an article purporting to be of utility has been tested, and its merits endorsed by public opinion, unprincipled parties endeavor to replenish their depleted purses by counterfeiting, and substituting a spurious for the genuine article. Some time since, mercury, in the disguise of pills, powders, &c. was given for all diseases of the stomach and liver, while quinine was freely administered for the chills. At length HOSTETTER'S STOMACH BITTERS made its advent, and an entire new system of healing was inaugurated. The beneficial effects of this valuable preparation were at once acknowledged, and mineral poisons suffered to sink into that obscurity to which an enlightened age has consigned them. There have been many spurious Bitters palmed upon the community, which, after trial, have been found perfectly worthless, while HOSTETTER'S has proved a blessing to thousands, who owe to it their restoration to health and for many years we have watched the steady progress of HOSTETTER'S STOMACH BITTERS in public estimation and its beneficient effects as a cure for all complaints arising from the stomach of a morbid nature, and we are free to say that it can be relied upon as a certain relief and remedy. Its proprietors have made the above preparation, after years of careful study and sitting, and are now reaping the reward claimed by this valuable specific, and which they so richly merit. It is the only preparation of the kind that is reliable in all cases, and it therefore demands the attention of the afflicted. Sept. 1, 16 1m.

THE KIDNEYS.—THE KIDNEYS ARE TWO in number, situated at the upper part of the loin, surrounded by fat and consisting of three parts, viz.: the Anterior, the Interior and the Exterior.

The anterior absorbs. Interior consists of tissues or veins, which serve as a deposit for the urine and convey it to the exterior The exterior is a conductor also, terminating in a single tube, and called the Ureter. The ureters are connected with the bladder

The bladder is composed of various coverings or tissues, divided into parts, viz: the Upper, the Lower, the Nervous, and the Mucous. The upper expels, the lower retains. Many have a desire to urinate without the ability; others urinate without the ability to retain. This frequently occurs in children.

To cure these affections, we must bring into action the muscles, which are engaged in their various functions. If they are neglected, Gravel or Dropsy may ensue.

The reader must also be made aware, that however slight may be the attack, it is sure to affect the bodily health and mental powers as our flesh and blood are supported from these sources.

GOUT, OR RHEUMATISM.—Pain occurring in the loins is indicative of the above diseases. They occur in persons disposed to acid stomach and chalky concretions.

THE GRAVEL.—The gravel ensues from neglect or improper treatment of the kidneys.—These organs being weak, the water is not expelled from the bladder, but allowed to remain; it becomes feverish, and sediment forms. It is from this deposit that the stone is formed, and gravel ensues

DROPSY is a collection of water in some parts of the body, and bears different names, according to the parts affected, viz.: when generally diffused over the body, it is called Anasarca; when of the abdomen, Ascites; when of the chest Hydrothorax.

TREATMENT.—Helmbold's highly concentrated compound Extract Buchu is decidedly one of the best remedies for diseases of the bladder, kidneys, gravel, dropsical swellings, rheumatism, and gouty affections. Under this head we have arranged Dysuria, or difficulty and pain in passing water, scanty secretion, or small and frequent discharges of water; Strangury, or stopping of water; Hematuria, or bloody urine; Gout and Rheumatism of the kidneys, without any change in quantity, but increase of color, or dark water. It was always highly recommended by the late Dr. Physick, in these affections.

This medicine increases the power of digestion, and excites, the absorbents into healthy exercise, by which the watery, or calcareous, depositions, and all unnatural enlargements, as well as pain and inflammation, are reduced, and it is taken by men, women, and children Directions for use and diet accompany.

PHILADELPHIA, PA., Feb. 25, 1867.

H. T. HELMBOLD, Druggist:

DEAR SIR—I have been a sufferer, for upward of twenty years, with gravel, bladder, and kidney affections, during which time I have used various medicinal preparations, and been under the treatment of the most eminent physicians, experiencing but little relief.

Having seen your preparations extensively advertised, I consulted with my family physician in regard to using your Extract Buchu. I did this because I had used all kinds of advertised remedies, and had found them worthless, and some quite injurious; in fact, I despaired of ever getting well, and determined to use no remedies hereafter unless I knew of the ingredients. It was this that prompted me to use your remedy. As you advertised that it was composed of buchu, cubebs, and juniper berries, it occurred to me and my physician as an excellent combination, and, with his advice, after an examination of the article, and consulting again with the druggist, I concluded to try it. I commenced its use about eight months ago, a at which time I was confined to my room.—From the first bottle I was as onished and gratified at the beneficial effect, and after using it three weeks, was able to walk out. I felt much like writing you a full statement of my case at that time, but thought my improvement might only be temporary, and therefore concluded to defer and see if it would effect a perfect cure, knowing then it would be of greater value to you, and more satisfactory to me.

I am now able to report that a cure is effected after using the remedy for five months

I have not used any now for three months, and feel as well in all respects as I ever did.

Your Buchu being devoid of any unpleasant taste and odor, a nice tonic and invigorator of the system, I do not mean to be without it whenever occasion may require its use in such affections.

FIRE.—The alarm of fire on Thursday morning last was occasioned by the burning of a frame stable on the premises of Mr. H. S. Hazell. The building was entirely consumed.—Loss about $350. No insurance.

GOING UP.—The walls of Weil & Bros. new brick store, opposite our office, are going up rapidly, and will be completed in about three weeks. The workmanship reflects great credit on the contractor, Mr. L. J. Nixon, and will compare favorably with any mason work we have ever examined. The wood work has been contracted for by Mr. C. C. Best, who is determined to keep up with the masons. These contractors are colored men, and masters of their profession, as all will admit who take the time to examine their work. This job has been pushed forward so rapidly and in such a workman-like manner, that other parties are negotiating with these mechanics to commence a brick block, as soon as they get through with the present job.

GOOD ADVICE.—If you wish to keep your enemies from knowing any harm of you, don't let your friends know any.

There is a wheat-grower in Minnesota who required fifteen reaping machines and one hundred and twenty-five hands for his harvest last month. It seems that the opinion gains ground that grain farms cannot be conducted economically except in large tracts—the small farmer not being able to incur the expease of the necessary machinery. Lord Stanley made such a statement at an agricultural dinner recently in England.

The Herald says there is a wholesome activity of trade in New York which presages an excellent season. Dry goods have fallen in price.

Last week at an agricultural fair in Canada the American flag was pulled down from its staff and torn to pieces. This does not show much of a wish on the part of the Canadians to become citizens of the Union.

JAS. GORDON BENNET.—A special to the Boston Times says: It is said that James Gordon Bennett has but a short time to live. At his last visit to the office of the Herald, two weeks ago, he was unable to ascend the stairs without assistance. The vigorous cast of countenance which it was his pride to maintain is fading away, and to outward appearance he is rapidly sinking into the grave.

These illustrations are of the finest character, and are handsomely printed on tinted paper.

The descriptive matter is very graphic and entertaining, and the work affords a spirited panorama of the great metropolis. The price is only fifty cents, which, remitted to the publishers, will secure a copy, mailed, postage paid.

The Eclectic Magazine.

A fine steel portrait of Marshal Serrano, which is the embelishment of the October number of the Eclectic, will find much favor at the present time. In Science we have a lucid paper on "Darwinism and Design," a valuable treatise by Mr. Proctor on Brorsen's Comet, and the conclusion of "The Language of Light," with a brief account of the "August Meteors." In miscellaneous papers A Cynic becomes dispirited at the vast accumulation of "Useless knowledge," and makes a very amusing protest against the scientific mania; and the "Legend of the Princess Tarakanof," "Thorvaldsen's Museum," "Muscovite Sketches," and a "Romance of Florence" will doubtless prove interesting enough to more than repay perusal. A BRIDAL PAIR IN A BATHROOM.—Cora Mowatt, who is writing foreign letters for the San Francisco Chronicle, tells a story of a bridal pair, making the tour of Switzerland, who recently came to a crowded hotel and were informed by the landlord that there was one unoccupied room in the house, the bathroom, and that a couple of beds might be made in the two baths which it contained. The youthful couple were well pleased to secure even this shelter after a fatiguing journey, and retired to rest. An hour or two later the stillness of the night was suddenly broken by shrieks of distress issuing from the bathroom.—The lady, wishing to summon a servant, had pulled what she presumed was a bell rope suspended over her head in the bath, when suddenly she was inundated by a shower of cold water. The gentleman, roused by her cries, and not quite comprehending the position, pulled a supposed bell rope which he felt dangling over his bath bed, to bring him a domestic, but brought instead a shower of hot water over himself. It was quite dark, and neither bride nor bridegroom could grope their way to the door. By the time succor came they were up to their knees in water.

An Albany rector, the other Sunday, called upon the Sunday School scholars to repeat the Collect for the day. Only one hand was raised. "Please repeat the Collect to me, my good little girl," said the rector. The scholar appearing suddenly bewildered, her teacher said, "If you know the Collect why don't you repeat it?" The little girl, evidently thinking something was wrong, bashfully stammered out: "I thought he wanted all that had the colic to hold up their hands, and I had it the other night, and father had to stay up and take care of me!"

Goldsborough News.

WEDNESDAY. SEPT. 29, 1869

THE TEETH OF A HORSE AS AN INDICATION OF AGE.—At five years of age a horse has forty teeth—twenty-four molar or jaw teeth, twelve incisors or front teeth, between the molars and incisors; but usually wanting in the mare.

At birth only two nippers or middle incissors appear.

At a year old, the incisors are all visible on the first or milk set.

Before three years, the permanent nippers have come through.

At four years old, the permanent dividers next to the nippers are out.

At five, the mouth is perfect, the second set of teeth having been completed.

At six, the hollow under the upper, called the mark, has disappeared from the nippers and diminished in the dividers.

At seven, the mark has disappeared from the dividers, and the next teeth or corners are level, though showing the mark.

At eight, the mark has gone from the corners, and the horse is said to be aged. After this time—indeed good authorities say that after five years—the age of the horse can only be conjectured. But the teeth gradually change their form, the incisors becoming round, oval and triangular.

JOSH BILLINGS' GOOSE TALK.

The goose is a grass animal but don't chaw her cud.

They are good livers; about one aker to a goose is enough, tho' there is some folks who think that one goose tew about 175 akers is nearer rite.

These two calculations are so far apart that it is difficult to tell now what will finally win.

But I don't think if I had a farm of 175 akers, all paid for that I would sell it for half what it is worth jest because I did not have any goose upon it.

Geese stay well; some of our best biographers say seventy years, and grow tuff to the last.

They lay one egg at a time about the size of a goose egg, in which the goslin lies hid. The goslin is the goose's babe.

The goose don't suckle its young, but turns them out to pasture on some body's vacant lot.

They seem to lack wisdom, but are considered sound en the goose.

They are good eeting, but not good chawing; the reason of this remains a profound secret tew this day.

When a female goose iz at work a hatching, she iz a hard bird to please; she riles clear up from the bottom in in a minit and will fight a yoke of oxen if they show her the least bit of sass.

The goose is excellent for feathers, which she sheds by the handful.

They are also amphibecusses, besides several other kind of cusses.

An individual was arrested the other day while endeavoring to pick a gentleman's pocket. He said he wasn't used to the business, and was just trying to get his hand in.

HOUSEHOLD RECIPES.

APPLES.

Take well flavored apples—pare, quarter and boil till tender, but not to break in pieces. Add sugar to the taste, and let the whole boil up once or twice. Fill the jars and seal.

ANOTHER.

Halve and core ripe and tender apples; fill the jar; pour in syrup till the jar is half full; place in a boiler of cold water; boil ten minutes; if there is a vacuum fill the jar or can with hot syrup; after standing a short time to settle, seal as before directed.

BOILED CUSTARD.

To one quart of milk add four well beaten eggs and a cup of white sugar; flavor with lemon or vanilla.—Put this in a tin pail, which set in a kettle of boiling water, letting it remain until the custard just boils, then remove to a cool place.

TO COOK VEGETABLE OYSTERS.

Dress the roots nicely and cut in slices three-fourths of an inch thick, boil in water till tender; have some slices of bread toasted and placed in a deep dish; and sweet cream to the oysters and season with butter, salt and pepper to suit the taste; let it boil a minute or two, and turn over the bread; cover the dish a few minutes and it is ready for use. Or the roots may be cooked and served as their namesake.

DEATH & CO.,

WHOLESALE AND RETAIL DEALERS IN SPIRITS, WINE AND MALT LIQUORS,

Take this opportunity of informing their friends that they continue the trade of making Drunkards, Bankrupts, Beggars and Maniacs on the most reasonable terms at the shortest notice.

The subscribers return their sincere thanks to numerous customers, and to all the tippling part of the community, for the extensive patronage they now receive; and they hope that many proofs that are now to be found of their success in the above line of business will secure to them the increased support of drunkards and little drop drinkers, as well as forever silence the advocates of total abstinence societies, those bitter enemies of their long established and popular trade.

Death & Co., beg leave to assure the public that the articles in which they deal are the best and most pleasant poisons in the world; and they will warrant them certain death in every case where the individual perseveres in the use of them.

Death & Co., bring themselves under obligations to send more persons to the poohouse, the prison, the gallows and the grave-yard than any other firm; and they will also do it with the greatest possible dispatch. To accomplish these desirable ends it is only necessary for the individual to take a glass occasionally, till he feels that quantity insufficient to gratify the craving appetite which it will soon create; and when this rum, whisky, gin, brandy, wine, cider, ale or porter appetite is formed, the persons are then prepared to brave temporal and eternal misery for the sake of another glass. In short, Death & Co. will spare no pains or expense to bring the wives and children of their customers to misery, temporal and eternal, and drive to delirium and death as many as the public good may require. They are constantly receiving new supplies of the poisonous liquids, which they will sell by the glass, the bottle, the barrel or hogshead.

For the accommodation of their numerous customers, and for the dispatch of their increasing business, Death & Co. have appointed a sufficient number of active agents, who are stationed at convenient distances in splendid palaces, beer shops, and public houses. These palaces, beer shops, and public houses and groggeries may be known by the squalor, filth, obscenity or misery of the customers who congregate around them, as well as by the odors of the poisons continually polluting the air around.

Satisfactory references can be given to county jails, houses of correction, lunatic asylums, hospitals, work houses, insolvent debtors' courts, the court of bankruptcy, or the wives and families of those whom Death & Co. have had the happiness to make drunkards.

N. B.—Death & Co beg leave to caution all tipplers and dram-drinkers from giving any heed to their wives, children or friends, or any advocates of total abstinence societies, as these parties are enemies to this soul and body-destroying business. Gentlemen, by calling on our agents, may see specimens of drunkards and subjects of the charnel house, at all hours, by day and by night, Sundays not excepted. DEATH & Co.

SAM'S TRICK.

BY GOOSE QUILL.

Sam B——was always regarded as a smart person by his acquantences. One day being in company with a dozen others and wishing to get a drink without paying for it, Sam was at a loss what to do. At last a happy thought struck him, so he exclaimed, "I'll bet the drinks with any body that I can drink a glass of whiskey under a hat without touching the hat." The bet was "taken" by one of the company, and Sam called for a glass of whiskey and borrowing a hat, covered the glass with the hat at a table near by, and crawling under the table, "knocked about" a little and regaining his erect position, he awaited the turn of affairs. He had not long to wait, for one of the company being eager to see if Sam had drank the contents of the glass, raised the hat, when Sam seizing the glass emptied the contents in the "twinkling of an eye," at the same time exclaimed; there Gentlemen I have won the bet. I said I would drink the contents of the glass without touching the hat and I've done it.—The person with whom Sam made the bet "gave in" that he had been "caught," and to the joy of Sam and the company ordered drinks for the crowd, which were gladly accepted by the latter. So Sam made two drinks, without costing him a cent.

WILLIAMSTON, MARTIN CO., February 22nd, 1869.

MR. JNO. R. CONGLETON, RALEIGH, N. C.

Dear Sir:—For the last eight or ten years I have been exceedingly troubled with a painful and distressing case of the Piles. Hearing "Congleton's Vegetable Salve" spoken so highly of as the great cure for Piles, I purchased in March, 1868, while in Washington N. C, one box, and was soon relieved, and by the time I had used the contents of the box I was perfectly well, and have never had any return since. I consider myself entirely and permanently cured. I give this for the benefit of those who may be troubled with the same disease, believing thereby that I will be benefiting them, and recommending to them a most valuable medicine and worthy of great praise.

I have also used the salve for Sore Throat and find it the best medicine I ever had in my family for that complaint.

Respectfully yours,
JAS H. ELLISON.

WAKE COUNTY, N. C, Feb. 14, 1866

MR. CONGLETON—Dear Sir:—It is with pleasure that I herein certify to the efficacy of your Vegetable Salve, in the cure of Piles. I have been afflicted with said disease some twenty five years, more or less. I have tried various remedies, but found no cure until I was advised by a friend in Raleigh to try your Salve, which I have done, and am at present perfectly well. I have used only one box, which I think, it judiciously used, will cure any case like mine.

I would advise all afflicted with said disease to go and do likewise.

Yours respectfully,
HENRY UTLEY.

Ayer's Sarsaparilla

A compound remedy, designed to be the most effectual Alterative that can be made. It is a concentrated extract of Para Sarsaparilla, so combined with other substances of still greater alterative power as to afford an effective antidote for the diseases Sarsaparilla is reputed to cure. It is believed that such a remedy is wanted by those who suffer from Strumous complaints, and that one which will accomplish their cure must prove of immense service to this large class of our afflicted fellow-citizens. How completely this compound will do it has been proven by experiment on many of the worst cases to be found of the following complaints:—

SCROFULA AND SCROFULOUS COMPLAINTS, ERUPTIONS AND ERUPTIVE DISEASES, ULCERS, PIMPLES, BLOTCHES, TUMORS, SALT RHEUM, SCALD HEAD, SYPHILIS AND SYPHILITIC AFFECTIONS, MERCURIAL DISEASE, DROPSY, NEURALGIA OR TIC DOULOUREUX, DEBILITY, DYSPEPSIA AND INDIGESTION, ERYSIPELAS, ROSE OR ST. ANTHONY'S FIRE, and indeed the whole class of complaints arising from IMPURITY OF THE BLOOD.

This compound will be found a great promoter of health, when taken in the spring, to expel the foul humors which fester in the blood at that season of the year. By the timely expulsion of them many rankling disorders are nipped in the bud. Multitudes can, by the aid of this remedy, spare themselves from the endurance of foul eruptions and ulcerous sores, through which the system will strive to rid itself of corruptions, if not assisted to do this through the natural channels of the body by an alterative medicine. Cleanse out the vitiated blood whenever you find its impurities bursting through the skin in pimples, eruptions, or sores; cleanse it when you find it is obstructed and sluggish in the veins; cleanse it whenever it is foul, and your feelings will tell you when. Even where no particular disorder is felt, people enjoy better health, and live longer, for cleansing the blood. Keep the blood healthy, and all is well; but with this pabulum of life disordered, there can be no lasting health. Sooner or later something must go wrong, and the great machinery of life is disordered or overthrown.

Sarsaparilla has, and deserves much, the reputation of accomplishing these ends. But the world has been egregiously deceived by preparations of it, partly because the drug alone has not all the virtue that is claimed for it, but more because many preparations, pretending to be concentrated extracts of it, contain but little of the virtue of Sarsaparilla, or any thing else.

During late years the public have been misled by large bottles, pretending to give a quart of Extract of Sarsaparilla for one dollar. Most of these have been frauds upon the sick, for they not only contain little, if any, Sarsaparilla, but often no curative properties whatever. Hence, bitter and painful disappointment has followed the use of the various extracts of Sarsaparilla which flood the market, until the name itself is justly despised, and has become synonymous with imposition and cheat. Still we call this compound Sarsaparilla, and intend to supply such a remedy as shall rescue the name from the load of obloquy which rests upon it. And we think we have ground for believing it has virtues which are irresistible by the ordinary run of the diseases it is intended to cure. In order to secure their complete eradication from the system, the remedy should be judiciously taken according to directions on the bottle.
